18 USC, Sec. 2340(1)

(1) "torture" means an act committed by a person acting under the color of law specifically intended to inflict severe physical or mental pain or suffering (other than pain or suffering incidental to lawful sanctions) upon another person within his custody or physical control;

(2) "severe mental pain or suffering" means the prolonged mental harm caused by or resulting from

(A) the intentional infliction or threatened infliction of severe physical pain or suffering;

(B) the administration or application, or threatened administration or application, of mind-altering substances or other procedures calculated to disrupt profoundly the senses or the personality;

(C) the threat of imminent death; or

(D) the threat that another person will imminently be subjected to death, severe physical pain or suffering, or the administration or application of mind-altering substances or other procedures calculated to disrupt profoundly the senses or personality...

2003 Public Law 108:21 - Prosecutorial Remedies and Other Tools to end the Exploitation of Children Today Act

Title 1, Section 102 of P. L. 108:21 specifies that a person will receive the death penalty if convicted of a crime that was committed at the offender's age 16 or older, in which the offender abuses a child, and the child dies, or tortures a child, and the child dies. An added stipulation is that the child must have been in the offender's care or control at the time of the murder. Further, the murder can
